

Porsche Faux-Cam Engine Data Sheet

Built on a late engine case, this special engine was featured in Excellence magazine. It was installed in an aluminum reproduction of Porsche's rare and well know Abarth Carrera. The engine features a Carrera 4 cam fan shroud, fan, and stand attached to the engine case with special welded on mounting points. The front cover is the result of hours of CNC programming and features a special drive for two original 356 distributors.

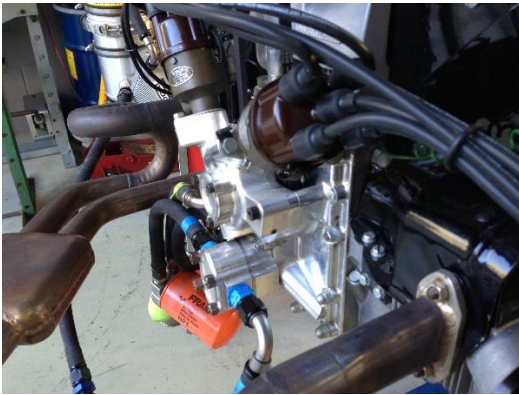

Front Cover – Machined CNC

Four Cam Fan Housing and Fan

Porsche Faux-Cam Engine
Data Sheet

Dual Distributors

Front View of Engine

The heads are drilled for the second plug just like the original factory aircraft engines. Recently tested on a DTS engine dynamometer, it produced 120hp at 5700 rpm.

Asking Price: $55K

Contact: John at Willhoit Auto Restoration
Email: john@willhoitautorestitution.com
Mobile Phone: (714) 356-1735
Business: (562) 439-3333